

Thinking About Outcomes for Preparation for Adulthood

An online event about PfA outcomes for young people with SEND in the Yorkshire & Humber region

Monday 15 March | 10am–1pm

What is this event about?

This online conference will showcase outcomes thinking and planning for young people experiencing SEND, focussing upon the four PfA pathways.

Who is it for?

This event will be of interest to plan writers, EPs, Therapists, DCO/DMOs, SEND EHCNA team leaders, PCFs and schools/colleges.

We will consider effect practice in outcomes- what works well nationally; effective tools which engage the views of young people and their aspirations. Sharing of free resources.

Who will be speaking?

Barry Jones, PfA regional adviser, NE & NW
Pat Bullen, PfA regional adviser, Y&H

Is it free?

Yes, the event is free to attend thanks to funding from the Department for Education.

Where?

The event will take place on Microsoft Teams.

Join the conversation @PfA_tweets

#PfA

SIGN UP NOW!

Click here to register for the event.

info@preparingforadulthood.org.uk | www.preparingforadulthood.org.uk

PfA is a programme delivered by National Development Team for Inclusion (NDTi) and funded by the Department for Education as part of the delivery support for the SEND reforms